What students say

> "He should be the professor of the course. He is very concise and helps you understand these concepts in a simple manner. He made two hours of review fly by like it was twenty minutes of teaching."
> — Fall 2023, Econ 1

> "He was very good at explaining theoretical concepts and the logic behind the code. He spent an hour outside of his office hours helping me fix my corrupted data. This was the best, most dedicated and most supportive TA I ever had."
> — Spring 2024, Customer Analytics

> "He was so patient when going over a tricky problem that I was utterly confused about, and made sure I really understood each step before moving on."
> — Spring 2025, Econ 100B

> "Gabriel's explanations were very good and helped me understand the course much better. Because he was so open to questions, many people asked questions, which in turn helped me understand things even more."
> — Fall 2025, Econ 1

> "His storytelling and the way he explains his solutions to problems helped me understand the material better. He also asks questions to make sure that students actually understand the material."
> — Spring 2026, Econ 100A
